ANNUAL REPORT 2013

A New Beginning; Rebirth of the Church

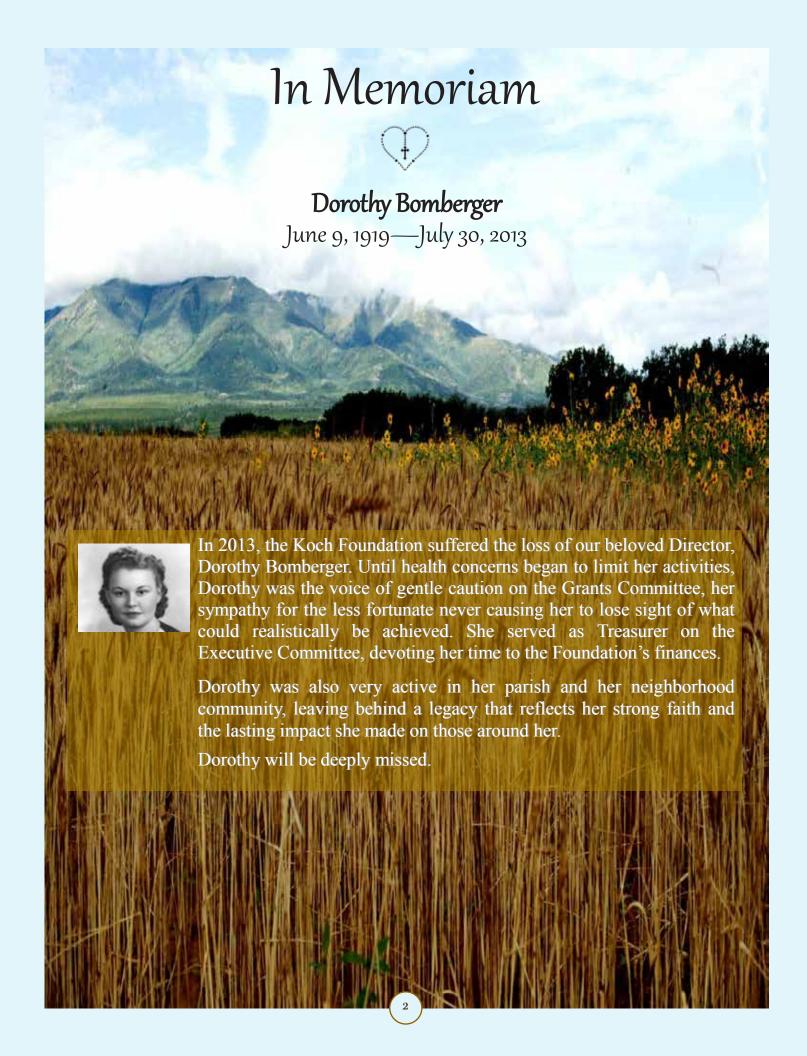

MISSION STATEMENT

Carl Koch's belief that he was "just a steward of the finances given by God to use on His behalf" inspired the commitment he and his wife, Paula, made to founding the Koch Foundation in 1979. The Foundation's goals are to strengthen and to propagate the Roman Catholic faith by providing grant support for a wide variety of evangelization efforts. In considering applications, major emphasis is placed on sound but financially needy evangelical programs. The Koch Foundation is international in scope with no geographical preference.

Carl and Paula Koch

Letter From The EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

What a year this has been for the Catholic Church! After the sudden resignation of Pope Benedict XVI, the Church was blessed with a new leader in the election of Pope Francis. As a member of the Society of Jesus, Pope Francis is a very educated but very humble individual. His strict lifestyle and spirit of poverty has become a model for Catholics everywhere. From the moment he was presented to the world, he has appeared more as a parish priest, closer to the people than previous popes.

Our new Pope emulates the teachings of St. Francis, showing dedication to the poor. When he was the Archbishop of Buenos Aries, he said, "St. Francis brought Christianity an idea of poverty against the luxury, pride, and vanity of the civil and ecclesiastical powers of the time." His simple lifestyle and selection of his name carries with it the conversion of St. Francis who abandoned his worldly lifestyle when he was told by Christ to "repair my Church in ruins." Pope Francis is seen as the force needed to face the challenges ahead for the Catholic Church—a leader who will help mend the cracks in its foundations in preparation for its tremendous ongoing growth.

His election also ushers in multiple "firsts" for the Church:

- † the first Jesuit
- 🕆 the first to become Pope while the previous Pope is still alive
- 🕆 the first New World Pope
- † the first non-European Pope in 1,300 years
- 🕆 the first Pope since 913 AD to be known by a name never used by one of his predecessors

As a celebrant, Pope Francis stresses a simple but authentic and profound relationship between God and people.

As we join Pope Francis in this new beginning for the Church, we accept his invitation extended to us in his remarks after his election: "Let's begin this journey, bishop and people, this journey of the Church of Rome, which is the one that presides in charity over all the churches—a journey of brotherhood, love, and trust among us. Let us pray for one another. Let us pray for the whole world that there be a great brotherhood."

This year, the Koch Foundation has joined this journey by renewing and strengthening its dedication to the preparation of men and women religious and direct evangelization. Together, religious and laity, both devoted to the poor and downtrodden, will walk down the same path traveled by St. Francis and the Holy Father in order to spread the Faith.

As our journey continues, we brothers and sisters in Christ will continue to pray that the Holy Spirit gives our new Pope Francis the spiritual guidance, strength, and fortitude to meet the challenges he will encounter as he leads the Church in a new direction.

In Christ's Name,

Carolyn Young

A NEW BEGINNING; REBIRTH OF THE CHURCH

Habemus Papam! We have a new Pope! This joyous proclamation given from the central balcony of St. Peter's Basilica on March 13, 2013 heralded a new beginning for the Catholic Church. Not only had the College of Cardinals selected a new Pope in Jorge Mario Bergoglio, they also chose someone who speaks to an area of the world and the millions of its people that are reshaping parishes in the United States and across the globe.

As the first Pope to select the name of Francis, the Holy Father has an obvious love and affinity for St. Francis, an extraordinary man who chose to be with the poor, the lepers, and outcasts of Assisi against the wishes of his wealthy merchant father. St. Francis was known for leading a simple life and, although the new Pope Francis is a member of the Society of Jesus, he emulates the Franciscan way of life in his simple and humble way. His influence has already begun to affect believers and nonbelievers worldwide, causing many people to see the Church in a new light and motivating some to return to the Church. We pray that these initial efforts by the Holy Father will act as precursors to many more positive changes in our Church and in the secular world.

We believe he will be a great Pope who can initiate changes in the Church for the betterment of all Catholics, especially the poor and the powerless of our society, and leave a stronger, more unified Church in his wake.

DIRECT EVANGELIZATION

"Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God."

2 Corinthians 5:20

Pope Francis has stated, "Christians are called to do the great work of evangelizing to the ends of the world in a spirit of humility rather than an attitude of conquering." He has said that traveling the world and preaching the Gospel is "the mission of the Church." The new Pope challenges us to spread the Word of God as humble servants of the Lord, knowledgeable of our faith and strong in our commitment to Christ.

The Koch Foundation funds Direct Evangelization programs and religious activities that directly support, strengthen, and spread the Catholic proclamation of Christ's Gospel.

PREPARATION OF EVANGELISTS

"And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Matthew 16:18-19

The Holy Father, Pope Francis, has spoken often about the need for more religious vocations. He has stated that, "the proclamation and witness of the Gospel—for every Christian—are never isolated acts. Christians do not do well because of a personal inspiration, but in union with the mission of the Church and in its name." Holy men and women live a life of poverty and rely on God's providence. They serve the poor and those forgotten by society. Many are located in remote, hostile areas or in slums, going wherever they have felt a calling to teach the Word of God.

The Koch Foundation funds the Preparation of Evangelists, formation programs, and religious activities that prepare individuals and groups to proclaim the Good News of salvation through the Catholic faith.

"And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise."

Deuteronomy 6:6-7

Pope Francis is a member of the Society of Jesus, a congregation known for their work in education. The Pope is also well educated with a background in chemistry, philosophy, and theology. His congregation, the Jesuits, founded the Nativity Miguel Network, a group of Catholic schools often located in low-income areas. They provide a strong academic curriculum free of charge to poor students who, upon completion of the program, go on to college where many become first in their families to graduate. This model is replicated in many Catholic schools worldwide, educating children in the Catholic faith as well as providing a good education. Many times Catholic schools are the only symbol of a Catholic presence in the area and provide not only an education for the local children, but also for their families.

The Koch Foundation provides support to resource-poor areas where Catholic schools are the only means of evangelization. The Foundation also funds innovative programs that have the potential to provide future Church leaders

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God."

Colossians 3:16

In a world of rapidly changing digital media, Pope Francis is pioneering new ways of sharing the faith with people both within and outside of the Church. As a teacher and pastor, it is his responsibility to promote unity in the Church and he is known for describing religious concepts with visually clear images that ordinary people can understand. As his papacy continues, he will expand the methods of disseminating his message to everyone through various social media, radio, and print.

The Koch Foundation supports Mass Media efforts which carry the Word of God.

"The LORD said to him: "I have heard the prayer of petition which you offered in my presence. I have consecrated this temple which you have built; I confer my name upon it forever, and my eyes and my heart shall be there always."

1 Kings Chapter 9:3

No matter how vivid its light, a flame will extinguish when left exposed. Chapels, shrines, monasteries, seminaries, and many other structures are essential shelters to the hearts of the faithful. Stone by stone and brick by brick, the expansion of the Church renews Christ's covenant with St. Peter, the original architect of grace. This year and beyond, our Holy Father asks us to use the tools of our faith to continue this tradition and build firm foundations for the Church in communities worldwide.

The Koch Foundation provides support for Capital Expenditures which include the construction or repair of church buildings, convents, monasteries, and religious formation centers worldwide.

KOCH FOUNDATION, INC. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

MARCH 31, 2013 AND 2012

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors, Koch Foundation, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis of Koch Foundation, Inc. (the Foundation), as of March 31, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of cash receipts and disbursements and changes in net assets – modified cash basis and cash flows – modified cash basis for the years then ended.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting as described in Note 2; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and net assets of Koch Foundation, Inc. as of March 31, 2013 and 2012, and its receipts and disbursements for the years then ended in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting as described in Note 2.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

The accompanying notes to financial statements are an integral part of these statements.

(1) Business Organization:

The Koch Foundation, Inc. (the Foundation), a Florida not-for-profit corporation, was established in February 1979 as a private Florida foundation through a grant from Carl and Paula Koch. The primary purpose of the Foundation is to invest funds for the generation of investment income, which is to be used to provide grants for Roman Catholic activities that propagate the faith. Carl and Paula Koch were the principal donors of the Foundation. The distribution of these donations is subject to the Board of Directors' (the Board) approval. All funds of the Foundation are unrestricted as they are used for the primary purpose of the Foundation.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Principles:

(a) Basis of presentation—The Foundation prepares its financial statements on the modified cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting. All transactions are recognized as cash is received or paid. Therefore, revenue and expenses are recognized as cash is received or paid, and the related receivables, payables and accrued expenses are not reflected in the accompanying financial statements, with the exception of the following:

Unrealized gains or losses on investments, which are recognized based on fair market value.

Accrued interest receivable is recorded for interest due but not paid as of year-end for investments in debt securities.

An accrued vacation liability has been accrued for the amount of each employee's unpaid (unused) vacation balance.

Expenditures having an economic life of more than one year are capitalized as assets and depreciated over their estimated useful lives.

- (b) Cash and cash equivalents—For the purposes of reporting cash flows, the Foundation considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.
- (c) Investments—Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in private equity and debt securities are reflected in the accounts of the Foundation at fair value. For information on how the Foundation determines fair value, see Note 12.

Unrealized appreciation and depreciation is based on the market value of investments as of March 31 and recognized currently in the statements of receipts and disbursements and changes in net assets - modified cash basis.

(d) Derivatives—In the normal course of business, the Foundation uses derivative financial instruments in an effort to manage exposure on long-term investments. Specifically, to manage price and interest rate risk associated with investing activities, the Foundation uses forward contracts. Under these contracts, the Foundation agrees to the future delivery of a security, on an agreed-upon date, and at an agreed-upon price. These contracts are entered into with the intention to minimize the Foundation's economic exposure to adverse fluctuations in financial markets and to reduce interest rate risk. The Foundation's forward contracts (stock options sold) are presented at fair value and are based on quotes from brokers.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Principles: (Continued)

- (e) Use of estimates—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, net assets, receipts and disbursements during the reporting period and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
- (f) Depreciation—Property and equipment is stated at cost. The Foundation computes depreciation using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Office building and improvements	40
Furniture and fixtures	5
Computer equipment	3

(g) Tax status—The Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Foundation is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The Code imposes an excise tax of 2% (reduced to 1% if certain requirements are met) on net investment income of private foundations.

The Foundation files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. With few exceptions, the Foundation is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state or local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2009.

The Foundation has reviewed and evaluated the relevant technical merits of each of its tax positions in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, and determined that there are no uncertain tax positions that would have a material impact on the financial statements of the Foundation.

(h) Subsequent events—The Company has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements through August 27, 2013 the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No subsequent events have been recognized or disclosed.

(3) Concentration of Credit Risk:

At March 31, 2013 and 2012, the Foundation has demand deposits and money market accounts with local and national banks amounting to $14,013,157 and $4,541,625, respectively. The Foundation has no policy requiring collateral to support these deposits, although amounts are federally insured up to FDIC limits.

(4) Federal Excise Tax:

In accordance with the applicable provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 (the Act), the Foundation is subject to an excise tax on net investment income, including realized gains, as defined in the Act.

In addition, the Act requires that certain minimum distributions be made in accordance with a specified formula. As of March 31, 2013 and 2012, the Foundation had distributions in excess of the required minimum for the current year.

(5) Property and Equipment:

The following is a summary of the components of property and equipment as of March 31:

	2013			2012
Office building and improvements	$	356,322	$	356,322
Furniture and fixtures		145,563		144,293
Computer equipment		94,596		94,596
		596,481		595,211
Less: Accumulated depreciation		(313,176)		(295,779)
	$	283,305	$	299,432

Depreciation expense was $17,397 and $16,219 for the years ended March 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

(6) Related Parties:

Directors and officers have made significant contributions of their time and services to assist the Foundation in its investment activities. The estimated fair market value of these contributions was approximately $320,000 during the years ended March 31, 2013 and 2012. As the Foundation records its financial statements on the modified cash basis, these contributions have not been recognized in the financial statements.

(7) Employment Contracts:

As required by a terminated employment contract, a former officer began receiving retirement benefits from the Foundation of approximately $8,000 per year during January 1995. The benefit payments continue throughout the life of the officer and the officer's spouse. Payments of $8,256 were made during the years ended March 31, 2013 and 2012, and are included in management and general disbursements.

The Foundation has an employment contract with an Executive Director, which automatically renews from year to year for successive one year terms unless terminated by either party. The contract can be prematurely terminated if the employee voluntary terminates the contract (must give 60 days notice) or the employee is involuntarily terminated with cause. The contract provides, among other things, a stipulated salary and annual retirement benefits.

(8) Employee Benefit Plan:

The Foundation sponsors a Simplified Employee Pension Plan (the SEP Plan) and a $403(b) Tax Deferred Annuity Plan (the $403(b) Plan) to provide for retirement benefits for the employees of the Foundation. Under the SEP Plan, each eligible employee maintains an individual retirement account into which the Foundation makes contributions. The Foundation has committed to contribute eight percent of all participating employees' annual compensation to the SEP Plan each year. The $403(b) Plan provides for participating employees to voluntarily deduct tax-deferred amounts from their gross wages to purchase tax-deferred annuities. The Foundation has no obligations related to the $403(b) Plan. Benefits in both plans are fully vested immediately upon contribution. Contributions of $18,808 and $17,201 were made during the years ended March 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and are included in management and general disbursements.

(9) Risks and Uncertainties:

The Foundation invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect investment account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of assets, liabilities, and net assets – modified cash basis.

(10) Investments:

The Foundation's investments consist of the following at March 31:

	2013				2012

(12) Fair Value Measurements:

The fair value measurement accounting literature provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Foundation has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2 – Inputs to the valuation methodology include: (1) quoted market prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, (2) quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets, (3) inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, and (4) inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement. Unobservable inputs are those that reflect the Foundation's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset developed based on the best information available. These types of amounts due from externally managed private equity investments are determined based on information provided by the private equity firm.

The asset's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes to the methodologies used at March 31, 2013 and 2012.

Exchange-traded funds, common stock, and stock options – Valued at quoted market prices.

Mutual funds – Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of shares held by the Foundation at yearend. Mutual funds held by the Foundation are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily NAV and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Foundation are deemed to be actively traded.

Private equity investments – Valued at the net asset value of the units held by the Foundation at year end, as reported by the investment manager.

Since the private equity investments are valued utilizing unobservable inputs, and do not permit redemption at the measurement date, such investments are classified within Level 3. These investments are presented in the accompanying financial statements at fair value, as determined by the investment manager. The investment manager's determination of fair value is based upon the best available information provided by the underlying limited partnership the private equity funds invest in and may incorporate management assumptions and best estimates after considering a variety of internal and external factors.

The general partners of the underlying investment partnerships generally value their investments at fair value. Securities with no readily available market are generally valued according to the market approach, which attempts to apply a fair value standard by referring to meaningful third-party transactions, comparable public market valuations and/or the income approach. Consideration is also given to the financial condition and operating results of the issuer, the amount that the investment partnerships can reasonably expect to realize upon the sale of the securities, and any other factors deemed relevant. A security can be carried at acquisition price (cost) if little has changed since the initial investment of the company and is most representative of fair value. Securities with a readily available market (listed on a securities exchange or traded in the over-the-counter market) are valued at quoted market prices or at an appropriate discount from such price if marketability of the securities is restricted.

Investments, other than the underlying diversified investment partnerships, for which price quotations are not readily available, shall be valued at fair value as determined by the General Partner. For such investments, management applies comparable transaction multiples and/or comparable trading multiples, where such comparable multiples are available and appropriate, and/or a discounted cash flow analysis, where appropriate, to estimate fair value. The General Partner establishes valuation processes and procedures to ensure that the valuation techniques for investments are fair, consistent, and verifiable. The General Partner's valuations are reviewed by the investment manager's valuation governance process on a quarterly basis which included the investment committee comprised of the investment manager's management and compliance members.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Foundation believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table summarizes the assets of the Foundation for which fair values are determined on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively:

Following is a description of the significant investment strategies of each major category of investments that calculate net asset value per share and are not in an active market (Level 2 and Level 3 measurements):

Foreign bond mutual fund – The investment seeks maximum real return by investing mainly in fixed income instruments that are economically tied to foreign countries, which may be represented by forwards or derivatives such as options, future contracts or swap agreements. It may invest in derivative instruments, such as options, futures contracts or swap agreements, or in mortgage- or asset-backed securities. The fund normally limits its foreign currency exposure to 20% of total assets. It is non-diversified.

Private equity investments – To provide long-term capital appreciation and current income through investments in limited partnerships, which invest in diversified portfolios ranging from short-term to long-term instruments, as described below.

Level 3 assets were 3.13% and 3.27% of total investment assets at fair value at March 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively. The following table presents changes in the Foundation's Level 3 investment assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis for the years ended March 31, 2013 and 2012:

- (a)—This category includes private equity funds that offer the investor the opportunity to invest in private equity transactions, such as growth equity financing, leverages buyouts, acquisitions and/or industry consolidations, recapitalizations and restructurings. Traditionally, private equity investments seek to earn returns substantially above those on publicly traded stocks over a long term (7 to 10 years) investment horizon and to further diversify the equity component of an investment portfolio. This fund is invested 86% in the United States. Redemptions do not apply; these are closed ended limited partnership investments.
- (b)—This category includes private equity funds that seek to generate higher returns over the long term than those generally available on the foreign listed securities exchanges through investments in a diversified portfolio of international private capital funds and to further diversify the equity component of a nonprofit institution's investment portfolio. This fund is invested 43% in Europe. Redemptions do not apply; these are closed ended limited partnership investments.
- This category includes private equity funds that aim to give investors the opportunity to earn long term capital appreciation by investing in early stage, high growth private companies, principally in the information technology and life sciences/healthcare fields. Traditionally, venture capital investments seek to earn returns above those in publicly traded stocks over a long-term investment horizon, and to further diversify the equity component of an investments portfolio. This fund is invested 84% in the United States. Redemptions do not apply; these are closed ended limited partnership investments.
- ^(d)—This category includes a portfolio of real estate properties which are bought and sold as well as held out for rent with the aim of returning optimal returns on capital to investors. The portfolio is managed with investors in mind and the decisions to sell any asset include property-specific considerations (leasing activity and capital improvements), while concurrently examining capital market activity to identify the optimal timing of assets sales. The portfolio consists of fourteen properties all located in the United States.
